Arraign Zimmer On Charge Of Murdering Girl

TOPEKA (AP)—A 45-year-old Kansas City, Kan., railroad worker, William F. Zimmer, was arraigned Monday on a charge of first degree murder in the death of a girl he is accused of kidnaping.

The child, 7-year-old Gladys Johnson, a Negro, was taken by a white man in a car Nov. 14 as she stood in front of her baby sitter's home with a younger brother and sister. Her body was found by hunters near Saint Mary's, Kan., Saturday.

Zimmer was charged in the Court of Topeka. A preliminary hearing is scheduled Wednesday. If he is bound over to district court, the case will probably be set for the next term of court after the first of the year.

The murder charge was read to Zimmer at the arraignment and he was asked if he understood it. Zimmer said he did. These were the only words he spoke during the appearance before Judge William Carpenter.

Engines Faltered In Takeoff

Pilot Attempted To Abort Flight That Killed 45

ROME (AP) — Trans World Airlines said today preliminary evidence indicated that the TWA jetliner which exploded Monday developed engine trouble at the start of its takeoff run. It said the pilot's effort to abort the run caused the plane to veer to the right and hit a steamroller.

TWA headquarters in Paris issued a preliminary accident report in which the airline said the steamroller ignited fuel spilling from the plane, causing the explosion.

Work crews began recovering bodies from the plane's wreckage at the end of runway 25.

"From the evidence at hand, the aircraft began a normal takeoff on runway 25. From preliminary crew reports, No. 4 engine pressure ratio dropped to zero at some point early in the takeoff run, and the No. 2 engine reverse indication light came on," the TWA report said.

"Capt. Vernon Lowell immediately aborted the takeoff, using brakes, spoilers, and reverse thrust.

"During the deceleration process, the aircraft veered to the right, sufficiently for the wing, overhanging the runway edge, to strike a steamroller which was being operated at a distance of 24 feet from the edge of the runway. The aircraft continued on its course for another 300 feet, spilling fuel from the ruptured right wing. Indications are that the steamroller ignited this fuel as the aircraft came to a stop near the end of runway No. 25. Emergency cabin procedures were begun.

"In the rear cabin, the main door and the galley emergency exit door were opened, and the chutes placed in position. The front main door was opened, and as the emergency evacuation chute there was being positioned and inflated, an explosion took place in the center wing area of the aircraft.

Dr. Carlson Is Among Victims

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Belgian paratroopers swarmed down on Stanleyville today and seized virtual control of the rebel capital but not before about 50 foreign hostages were killed, including a U.S. missionary doctor, official reports said.

U.S. transport planes flew in the paratroopers, and some of them were shot at and reported damaged.

As the Belgians landed, white-led Congolese government soldiers attacked Stanleyville. The attacking troops moved quickly to free the rest of 1,613 foreigners held as hostages and marked for slaughter by the regime should their capital be attacked.

WASHINGTON (AP) — An American woman missionary was killed by Congolese rebels in Stanleyville, the State Department reported today. She was Miss Phyllis Rine of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Refugees flown to Leopoldville from Stanleyville said the rebels had killed Dr. Paul Carlson, medical missionary from Rolling Hills, Calif. He had been condemned as a spy, a charge denied by Washington.

(The State Department in Washington said Carlson was among 250 hostages herded by the Congolese rebels into Lumuba Square and fired upon. Belgian official reports said 15 hostages were killed and 40 were wounded when the rebels machine gunned them in the square. The State Department notified Carlson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Carlson of Alhambra, Calif., and his brother, Dr. Dwight Carlson of Orange, Calif.)

In Brussels, Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak said he was informed that "at least 50 non-Africans have been killed."

Some of the foreigners were shot down when they dashed toward the airport as the news of the Belgian paratroop landing swept the rebel capital in the northeast Congo.

Spaak said 200 foreigners were held in a Stanleyville hotel, and at least 15 were killed when the soldiers of leftist leader Christophe Gbenye opened fire on the building.

Higher Bank Discount Rate In US

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States put a higher bank discount rate into effect today as a safeguard against the flow of dollars abroad.

At the same time, the government hopes to keep the domestic economy on course by moderately increasing the funds available to bankers, businessmen and consumers.

The Federal Reserve Board Monday ordered an increase from 3.5 per cent to 4 per cent in the discount rate — the interest bankers must pay when they obtain funds from the Federal Reserve system. The board acted after Britain jumped its bank rate from 5 to 7 per cent earlier in the day.

Today, Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee, charged that the action would halt the vigorous business expansion that has run 45 months.

Patman has fought fiercely for years for lower interest rates, arguing that only bankers benefit from a tight money policy.

Beside approving the discount rate increase, the Federal Reserve Board raised the ceiling on time deposits from 4 to 4.5 per cent. Rates on savings deposits also were strengthened.

President Johnson, who is at his Texas ranch, talked by telephone with Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon and with William McChesney Martin, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, about the U.S. and British actions.

Dillon and Martin sought to allay fears that the board's actions represent a move toward monetary restraint.

WASHINGTON — The State Department said today it had confirmed reports that Dr. Paul Carlson, has been killed by Congolese rebels in Stanleyville. Department officials said they had notified Carlson's parents in California. Dr. Carlson was presumably killed by the rebels when Belgian paratroopers landed in Stanleyville to rescue white hostages. 'Fatal Blow' To Nuclear Force Plan

Stern Opposition To Proposal By British Government

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson appears to have dealt a severe—if not fatal —blow to the proposed mixed nuclear fleet of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization by declaring Britain opposes the project.

Wilson told the House of Commons Monday his Labor government believes "a mixed manned surface fleet adds nothing to Western strength, is likely to cause dissipation of strength in the alliance and may add to the difficulties of East-West agreement."

On the surface, his statement puts London in stern opposition to Washington's plan at the very moment when it seemed to officials here that the new British government's interest in the fleet had given fresh cause for hope that, perhaps after some modification, it might be acceptable to a number of NATO allies.

U.S. officials were surprised at the flatness of Wilson's declaration, but there was some tendency to regard it as the opening move in a series of negotiations.

Wilson said he hopes to obtain in discussions with President Johnson here next month more extensive "consultation in the deployment and sharing of NATO's nuclear strength."

At the same time he declared, "We are irrevocably committed against more fingers on the (nuclear) trigger." London's aim, said Wilson, is to have the United States serve as the custodian of Western nuclear power.

15 Injured In Kansas City

Three Die In Blast

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A terrific explosion ripped apart a three-story apartment building early today, killing two children and an elderly man and injuring 15 other tenants.

The blast, believed caused by an accumulation of gas, laid the interior of the brick building open like a stage set. The blast was heard more than two miles away.

Most of the north half of the building collapsed into the basement, carrying some residents in their beds into the debris.

About 10 hours after the blast, the bodies of Cameron L. Brown 22 months, and his sister, Debra Brown, 3 were recovered from the wreckage. They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Brown. Their mother, Diana, 25, had returned home from a hospital only Monday after giving birth to a son.

Still later the body of George Brown, 85, was found in the debris. He was not related to the Russell Brown family.

Fire did not immediately follow the explosion, but hours later a series of fires broke out under the rubble and hampered rescue operations.

Only one of the injured was admitted to the hospital. The others were treated and released. Admitted was Lawrence Pecord, 64, who was in fair condition with burns over most of his body.

Fire Chief James Halloren said faint cries were heard for a time from under the debris but firemen had been unable to locate where they were coming from.

The building was at 16th and Wyandotte, on the southwest edge of the downtown area.

Eber N. Foster, 66, manager of the building, said approximately 30 persons lived in the apartments, including about 15 children.

When firemen arrived Russell Brown, 47, was standing atop the rubble on the west, or front side of the building. He was naked except for a shirt with which he covered himself.

"My wife, Diana, she's still in there," he sobbed as firemen pulled him away.

Neighbors brought odd pieces of clothing and Brown, in shock watched as his wife was led from the building.

Moments later firemen pulled two of his children from the basement. The family lived on the first floor which fell through to the basement.

By 6 a. m. Brown's other two children had not been found. They were Cameron, 22 months and Deborah, 3.

Mrs. Brown, her 5-day-old infant son, Ray, amd another son, David, 5, were taken to the hospital for treatment of bruises and abrasions.

The cause of the blast had not been determined but there was a smell of gas in the area. Halloren cautioned against smoking.

Computer Gives Brother, Sister Date For Dance

PROVO, Utah (AP) — If a computer can be embarrassed the Brigham Young University electronic brain should be blushing.

Once a year the computer makes matches for a dance, pairing boys and girls with similar interests.

Bonnie Mitchell, 18, Provo, a red-haired freshman, asked for a tall boy with dark hair and blue eyes, who likes entertainment and looks on marriage favorably.

The male picked for her by the computer from BYU's 15,500 students was tall, had asked for a date with a red-haired girl, likes entertainment and looks on marriage favorably.

He was Richard Mitchell, 19, Bonnie's brother. Bonnie went to the weekend dance with Richard and said she had an "interesting" time.

Concentrate Aerial Eyes Over Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Air Force apparently is concentrating its aerial reconnaissance on the Laotian region through which men and supplies flow from Communist North Viet Nam into South Viet Nam.

The loss of two U.S. jets in the Laotian panhandle is an indication of this.

The loss of the American planes last week also may indicate the Communists have beefed up their force of radar-directed antiaircraft guns in this critical area.

The area could be a target for U.S. and South Vietnamese air strikes aimed at choking off that flow. Intensive aerial reconnaissance would be a necessary prelude to any such strikes.

Suggestions that the United States may be approaching a decision on whether to expand the war beyond South Viet Nam's borders have grown as the U.S.-supported drive against the Viet Cong has seemed to slacken.

Maxwell D. Taylor, U.S. ambassador to Saigon, said in an interview published by Life magazine that air strikes could contribute to victory "either by making more difficult the infiltration along the routes from North Viet Nam . . . or by striking the infiltration sources, the training and staging area as in North Viet Nam itself."

Presses Set to Roll Again In Auto City

DETROIT (AP) — Detroiters may be reading their two regular daily newspapers again tonight and Wednesday after going without them for 134 days.

Early editions of the morning Detroit Free Press expected to come out tonight, would be the first since a strike of two craft unions closed the Free Press and the afternoon Detroit News last July 13.

Seven Hurt In Accident At Junction

Seven persons were injured about 6 p. m. Monday in a two-car collision at the intersection of Cole Camp Junction, State Route 52 and U. S. Highway 65, south of Sedalia. Six of the seven were admitted to Bothwell Hospital for further observation and treatment.

Mrs. Bertha Kunkle, 77, Salem, Mo., a sister of Everett Wilcox, 77, Phillipsburg, Mo., driver of one car is in serious condition from her injuries. She suffered multiple facial fractures and lacerations about her face and head. When she arrived at the hospital in the Fox ambulance, Dr. Robert L. Glass had to perform a tracheotomy to relieve the throat pressure so she could breathe. Dr. Glass and Dr. Arturo Gonzalez performed the tracheotomy.

Also in the Wilcox car was his wife, Mrs. Anne Wilcox, 76, who suffered three severe lacerations of the forehead and front scalp, and bruises about her face. She was treated by Dr. Gonzalez. Mrs. Arthur Wilcox, 54, Route 2, Lebanon, Mo., a daughter-in-law, suffered a compound fracture of the right ankle. She was treated by Dr. Elliott Braverman. Everett Wilcox, suffered severe scalp lacerations and was treated by Dr. Gonzalez.

In the other car, driven by George Waggoner, 72, were Mrs. Mable Harms, 65, 310 West 49th, Kansas City, and Mrs. Ruby Sims, 57, Cole Camp.

Waggoner suffered fractures of the sixth and seventh ribs, and a possible fracture of the third rib. He was treated by Dr. Joseph W. Maunders and Dr. Braverman.

Mrs. Harms suffered a fractured upper left jaw, bruises to the lower left jaw, and the left ankle. She was treated by Dr. John M. Rodeman.

Oswald Sole Triggerman

Affirm Guilty Label

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mountains of newly disclosed evidence pinned securely today the sole guilt of President John F. Kennedy's assassination on Lee Harvey Oswald, the Marxist who said he hated America but found that the Soviet Union "stunk."

The 26 volumes of Warren Commission hearing transcript, released Monday, bared in full the charges of those who hold that Oswald was only the triggerman for a conspiracy or — as his mother testified — a scapegoat for murderers still uncaught.

The testimony revealed that those witnesses offered only admitted speculation, opinion, or unsupported theory.

Most of it was rebutted by the hard evidence against Oswald, piled up remorselessly in thousands of pages of testimony and still more thousands of exhibits.

There were disagreements even among those at the center of the nightmare events of Nov. 22, 1963. Did the dying president speak? No, said the widow Jacqueline, who was splashed with his gushing life blood. Yes, said the Secret Service agent in the front seat, the president said, "My God, I am hit."

Texas Gov. John B. Connally heard only two shots, his wife heard three. On some other details those closest to the vortex of sudden swirling tragedy disagreed.

But the inexorable thrust of the mass of evidence was that:

Lee Oswald, 24, a truant son who once drew a knife on his mother and contemptuously refused to see "a head shrinker or a nut doctor," had the capacity, the opportunity, the means and the will to assassinate a president. And, as Chief Justice Earl Warren and his six investigative colleagues found, did so.

The question asked ever since by shocked Americans — could it have been prevented? — was answered negatively by Secret Service Chief James J. Rowley.

His agents in Dallas performed "in an exemplary manner," said Rowley.

Laden as it was with hindsights and might-have-beens, the testimony was also illumined with grisly scenes etched forever on memories.

The widow of John F. Kennedy remembered: "And just as I turned and looked at him, I could see a piece of his skull and I remember it was flesh colored. I remember thinking he just looked as if he had a slight headache . . . and then he sort of did this, put his hand to his forehead, and fell into my lap."

Gov. Connally, conscious despite grave wounds, saw on the pale blue upholstery a "chunk of brain tissue as big as almost my thumbnail."

Secret Service agent Clinton Hill, who leaped on the accelerating car as it sped off to Parkland Hospital, thought he knew why Mrs. Kennedy crawled out on the rear deck of the automobile — an episode she said she could not recall.

Hill said he thought she was "reaching for something coming off the rear tail of the car."

Change Of Venue Given Ryan In Bennett Slaying

Cleaburne Ryna, 24, former Whiteman AFB airman, was granted a change of venue to Cooper Co. in the Lafayette Co. Circuit Court of Judge Phil H. Cook Monday. Ryan is charged with first degree murder in the slaying of Charlotte Bennett, 14, Sedalia, who was found dead near Lexington, March 9.

The motion for the change of venue was filed Nov. 17.

The Bennett girl resided at 1318 East Third with her parents. Her body was found in a ditch on Route M-13 south of Lexington near the Tabo Inn. She was slain and sexually attacked after attending a Saturday night dance at the nightspot.

Ryan has been held without bond since he was charged with the Bennett girl's murder. Another airman, A3c Charles W. Horstkamp, 19, had the original date with the victim and was charged with statutory rape.

The change of venue to the Cooper County Circuit Court at Boonville places the case under the jurisdiction of Judge Frank W. Hayes, Sedalia. Hayes is judge of the 18th Judicial Circuit which is comprised of Pettis and Cooper Counties.

Next term of court in Cooper County opens the first Monday in March.

Judge Cuts Fine For Heavy Truck

OLATHE, Kan. (AP) — A cattle truck collected a ton of water in its bed on a trip to the Kansas City stockyards in last week's rain.

The four-inch-deep water made the truck 2,000 pounds overweight and cost the trucking firm a $25 fine.

In levying the fine Monday, Judge William S. Allen, in magistrate court, said it was only about half the normal amount.

"I felt it was sort of like an act of God," the judge said.

Miss Betty Houser is Married To Mr. Randal Boyce Nov. 7th

In a candlelight ceremony at half past seven o'clock Saturday evening, Nov. 7, at Hopewell Church, near Versailles, Miss Betty Houser and Mr. Randal Boyce were united in marriage.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Houser, Versailles. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles H. Boyce, Linn. The Rev. J. L. Freeman performed the double ring ceremony.

Baskets of gladioli, flanked with candelabra holding burning cathedral tapers were placed on the altar.

Nuptial music was played by Miss Virginia Schad at the piano. She accompanied Miss Beverly Pethan, who sang "Always," "Whither Thou Goest," and traditional wedding marches.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a street length gown of Chantilly lace over delustered taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline, trimmed with iridescent sequins. The gown's long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. The bouffant skirt was cascaded with tiers of alternating tulle and lace. Her elbow length veil of illusion was secured to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses with ribbon streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Maid of honor was Miss Shirley Houser, sister of the bride. Her gown, also in street length, was of brocade taffeta, fitted through the bodice and with elbow length sleeves and a belled skirt. Her hat was a matching satin pillbox with brush net veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses tied with pink ribbon.

Mr. Donald Boyce served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. Bill Berkstresser, Columbia, and Mr. Joe McKague, Boonville.

Flower girl was Miss Jayne Marie Bennett, Smithville. Her dress matched that of the honor attendant to the bride.

Ringbearer was Master Gary Bauer, Affton.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise blue knit dress with black accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a turquoise wool two piece dress with accessories of black. The mothers wore white baby chrysanthemum corsages with their ensembles.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement. An arrangement of white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers decorated the bride's table, which also featured a four tiered wedding cake, highlighted with wedding bells and a miniature bridal couple.

Assisting at the reception were Miss Sue Frhrni, Miss Wanda Dowell, Miss Vivian McKague, Miss Virginia Medlock and Miss Maxine Wear. The guest book was attended by Miss Linda Bennett, Kansas City.

For a wedding trip to the State of Florida, the bride selected a blue wool ensemble.

The bride was graduated from Versailles High School. The bridegroom is a graduae of Linn High School.

The couple resides in St. Louis, where Mr. Boyce is a civil service employe.

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: For the past six months I have been a visitor in your wonderful country. Now that I am about to return to Austria I would like to tell you my impressions of America.

Your country is indeed the most prosperous in the world. The spaciousness of America is overwhelming; the beauty, awesome. I love every inch of it.

But, Miss Landers, something is wrong with the people. They are friendly and helpful but they appear to be unhappy. In America there is much pleasure, but no joy. Americans seem always to surround themselves with so much noise. They even walk with radios in their hands.

Your people hurry a great deal. They are afraid of quiet—afraid to think. And as one listens to much of the social conversation it is apparent that they do NOT think. They repeat only what they heard on the radio or TV.

I had a wonderful visit. Your country is the most beautiful in the world. You have lofty mountains, great prairies, endless deserts, beautiful tropics and imposing cities. May God bless Americans and may you find the true joy that mere pleasure cannot bring. — A THANKFUL GUEST.

Dear Guest: Thank you for some thoughtful observations. The distinction between pleasure and joy is a point worth making. Too many people don't know the difference.

I, too, have long felt that the absence of quiet is a device to escape from one's thoughts. The inability to be alone is one of the most telling illnesses of our time.

Dear Ann Landers: I have a problem but I'm not sure you can solve it because you caused it. Ever since you printed that letter from the woman who has a parrot which imitates voices on the radio (especially mine) I've been getting letters asking, "Will the real Edward P. Morgan please stand up."

I don't want a cracker, Ann, I want help. The sponsors of my program are disturbed. They want to know if the parrot is a member of the Actor's Union. I am disturbed, too, because if she is, they might decide to replace me. The parrot probably would work cheaper and be more of a novelty.

An aunt of mine, idly looking for a possible legacy from the J. P. Morgan family, once traced our family tree. She found no connection with the financier but learned that we are direct descendents from Henry The Pirate. It is possible that Henry mistreated his parrot and this bird who imitates me has inherited the resentment. Do you have any solace handy? — EDWARD P. MORGAN.

Dear Ed: We just checked the parrot and you can relax. She is not after your job. She says the reason parrots live for 200 years is because they are too smart to get mixed up with tension- producing jobs on radio, TV—or newspapers!

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I were married two months ago. He is in the service and was sent overseas last week. Before Al and I were married we used to go to a little tavern and dance to the juke box. In fact, that's where we met.

The evenings are going to be awfully lonely. Would it be O.K. if I went to that tavern for sentimental reasons, and danced a little? What do you say?—NETTIE.

Dear Nettie: A married woman whose husband is overseas should stay out of taverns—for sentimental reasons.

Stick to a schedule of work during the daytime and visit with family and friends during the evening. If you have an excess of time and energy offer your services to one of the many Volunteer Organizations in your community.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Open Portions Of Broadway Urban Route

Motorists have been urged to use extreme caution in traveling on East Broadway from New York to the City Limits, after this portion of the street was reopened to traffic Monday morning.

The roadway is still under construction, with items of equipment working or standing along most of the roadway from New York Avenue to Marshall Avenue. The roadway from Marshall to the underpass is cleared off, however. Motorists should look out for equipment along the portions of the roadway that have not been cleared.

The highway is a regular four-lane highway from New York to the underpass, however, all of the lanes are not open to traffic. Portions of the parking lanes, which are being installed on each side of the road from New York to Marshall, have not yet been completed, and machinery may be encountered in any of these areas. The work will be underway for some time, depending primarily on the weather, as street intersections and driveways have yet to be completed.

This is the second phase of Sedalia's Urban Plan street improvement, and will eliminate the heavy traffic formerly using Crescent Drive and East 12th to the underpass.

The Howard Ready-Mix Concrete Co. is the prime contractor.

With one sharp cold spell just past and others sure to come soon, city Fire Chief Emmett Vaught today cautioned Sedalians on the hazards of thawing frozen waterpipes.

"We had a number of alarms last year as a result of people using some sort of open flame to thaw pipes," Vaught said. "We recommend that some qualified person be obtained for such work as this."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

● Accidents

Frederick Melvin Ream, 44, Green Ridge, was injured at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday when the left rear wheel on his eastbound auto came off and caused the car to strike an embankment on Route B six miles west of Sedalia.

Highway Patrol Trooper Pete Stohr, who investigated, said the lug nuts on the wheel were apparently loose and allowed the wheel to drop off the 1954 Chevrolet. The car veered into an embankment on the north side of the road and Ream was thrown into the windshield.

A passing motorist took the injured driver to Bothwell Hospital where he was treated for a right shoulder injury, a cut behind the right ear, one broken front tooth and facial cuts and abrasions. He was released from the hospital after treatment.

A car ran into a ditch in the 1400 block of North Osage at 11:20 p.m. Monday night and police charged the driver with driving while intoxicated.

Bobby J. Parks, 19, a Negro, of Route 4, pleaded guilty in Police Court Tuesday and was fined $75.

Police reported Parks was southbound in a 1955 Ford at the time of the accident.

Mrs. B. E. Hunter, 75, summoned a neighbor, Robert Bailey, who in turn summoned her son, Glenn Hunter, after she had fallen and injured herself in her home on Route 2, Green Ridge, sometime before 7 p. m. Monday. Mrs. Hunter was taken to Bothwell Hospital by her neighbor and accompanied by her son.

She complained of her left side and left arm and was treated by Dr. John L. Watson, Cole Camp, who was summoned to the hospital.

Mrs. Hunter explained she had gone to her grandson's bedroom on the second floor of her residence to change the bed sheets. She said as she started down stairs she started to fall and remembered trying to grasp the stair railing. She said that she apparently blacked out and fell the entire distance down the stairs to the first floor.

After she revived, she reported she was able to get to the telephone, and tried first to call her son and when she was unable to reach him she called her neighbor. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey went to the home, summoned the son, and then started for the Doctors Clinic in Cole Camp. They passed a wreck at the junction, and after getting to the clinic, they found the doctors gone, so they drove back to the highway and came on to Sedalia and to Bothwell Hospital.

Her condition was not believed to be serious.

● Circuit Court

A $10,000 personal injury damage suit evolving from an auto accident Oct. 20, 1962, was filed Tuesday in Circuit Court against Robert Stephen Leftwich, Hughesville.

The plaintiff, James Elmer Frerking, Higginsville, alleges Leftwich was negligent in driving into the rear of a stopped motor vehicle that was stopped immediately behind Frerking's stopped vehicle. The accident occurred on Highway 40 in Saline County about 4.3 miles east of Highway 65.

Ike Skelton, Jr., Lexington, is attorney fo rthe plaintiff.

A charge of second degree burglary against Willis Lloyd Alkire, Butler, Mo., has been withdrawn in Circuit Court here. He was charged with burglarizing the Phillips 66 Station at Broadway and Lamine on March 9, 1963.

Alkire has been free on bond and Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz said his record has been clear since that time.

the left side and a slight cut in the left eyebrow. She was treated by Dr. Gonzalez.

All but Mrs. Sims were admitted to the hospital. All were brought from the scene of the accident to the hospital in ambulances from Fox Funeral Home in Cole Camp .

Sgt. Glenn Means, of the State Highway Patrol, Warsaw, conducted an investigation at the scene. He reported Waggoner was driving a 1957 Dodge sedan and was on Highway 52 headed toward Sedalia at the stop sign. Wilcox was headed north on Highway 65 and in the process of making the curve at the junction Sgt. Means said Wilcox apparently lost conrtol of his car as it went in to the curve. The car went off the pavement on the right side and veered directly toward the Waggoner car, striking it on the left rear side. Both vehicles spun and came to stop on the drive of the Texaco Service Station owned by V. S. Lujin on the northeast corner of the junction.

Both automobiles were extensively damaged and were removed to the W. K. Garage in Cole Camp.

most of the west wall were blown out. The upper floors and roof of the north side dropped to the first floor level. About half the building on the south side was left standing, but there were holes in the wall and some of the apartments were exposed.

An hour and a half after the explosion firemen dug a young woman out of the basement and placed her in an ambulance. She was later identified as Marianne Whitecalf, 21.

A priest talked with her during her ordeal.

"I don't know what kept her from suffocating," said Father Bernard Branson of the Cathedral of The Immaculate Conception. "She was pinned by a beam and there were bricks all around her."

"She was screaming when we arrived," Father Branson continued. "She seemed to calm down when she had someone to talk to. . . It took a lot of sawing and digging to get her out."

Some residents, trapped on the slanting upper floors, were rescued by firemen using aerial ladders and a "cherry-picker," which has a large basket mounted on a long boom.

Edward and Vivian Schooley, both 57, were asleep in their second floor apartment.

Mrs. Schooley was thrown from bed and quickly rescued by firemen, but her husband was pinned in bed by the ceiling. He was visible from the ground, as the whole north wall had crumbled away.

He was bleeding and crawled about the bed, evidently in shock, as firemen probed for him from the cherry-picker.

"The first thing I knew I was falling," Schooley said later. "I didn't hear any explosion."

Mrs. Schooley apparently didn't hear it either.

"I awoke suddenly and felt the building crumbling. Then plaster fell on me and then we fell," she said.

Those treated at the hospital and released included Nick, Jim and Lois Beaulieu; Marianne Whitecalf, 21; Bruce Whitecalf, 23; Francis Simlio, 58, Glenn Tayor, 28, Frank Smith, 70, Mrs. Odelia Ray, 63; Frank Lynn Sr., 25 and his son Frank Lynn Jr., 1; Mrs. Diana Brown, 45, and her sons, David, 5, and Ray Dean, 5 days.

Base Future Assured By Minutemen

"Whiteman Air Force Base will be around for a long time to come, because we are fortunate at Whiteman to have the Minuteman Missile," Col. Walter T. Eisenbrown, WAFB Base Commander, stated Monday noon in a talk before the members of Sedalia Rotary Club at the Bothwell. His refernece to Whiteman's continuation as a military base was in connection with the announcement last week by Secretary of Defense McNamara of the closing of many bases throughout the country.

With the help at the projector of Major George Baxter, officer in charge of the Information Services Office at Whiteman, Col. Eisenbrown gave an illustrated talk on the Minuteman Missile operation which included installation and cost of the missile program, the servicing of the missile and the launch control facility manning.

According to Col. Eisenbrown, more than 600,000 miles per month are driven by 500 vehicles in the servicing of the 150 missiles on the Whiteman operation. More than 3,700 people are involved in the program which is a larger complement of personnel than was used when Whiteman was a bomber base.

The annual cost of the Whiteman operation is about $20 million dollars, with the civilian payroll accounting for $2,470,000 and the military payroll $13,000,000, according to the speaker.

The program was introduced by Bernie Devine, November program chairman.

William Hurlbut reported more than 400 tickets for the six "Travel and Adventure Series" which opens Dec. 2 under Sedalia Rotary Club sponsorship, have been sold. A goal of one thousand ticket sales has been set and net proceeds from the series will be used to finance worthwhile community projects.

The Rev. J. R. Wallace, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was presented as new Rotarian by Oscar DeWolf, and received a Rotary pin from President Omer West.

Guests presented by Robert Phillips were Owen Fox, a guest of A. J. Harlan, and Tom Trout, Barry Wallace and John Arnest, Smith-Cotton High School student guests.

Invocation was given by the Rev. Marvin Sackschewsky. Dick Snow led in group singing with Mrs. Lillian Maynard at the piano.

Suing? Happy Waiting . . .

For the 12th year the Institute of Judicial Administration of New York University has taken the pulse of the nation's judicial system.

Diagnosis: Hardening of the legal arteries. Prognosis: Still critical but improving.

The statistics show that it takes an average of 17.6 months for a personal injury case to reach jury trial from the date on which a defendant files an answer to a complaint. Last year it was 18.6 months.

The annual survey is devoted to personal injury cases because they account for a substantial amount of litigation. Courts may be up to schedule in other areas, such as criminal or commercial calendars.

Not all the delays are to be blamed on the courts. Time has elapsed from the date of an injury to the institution of a suit, and more time to the filing of an answer to the complaint.

Even after a case is on the docket, "the law's delay" is often lawyers' delay. Many trial adjournments are caused by counsel who have not prepared their cases in time.

At any rate, out of 107 principal courts of general jurisdiction throughout the United States, 14 courts, or 13.1 per cent, reported delays of more than 30 months. In general legal congestion paralleled population congestion.

Far and away the national leader again was the Circuit Court of Cook County, Ill. (Chicago), with an average delay of 57.6 months. (It was 68 months in 1963.)

At the other end of the scale was the District Court of Yellowstone County, Mont. (Billings), with a wait of only 1.7 months.

HUNTSVILLE (Ala.) TIMES: Speling.—We duly note that under a new Russian spelling reform, the world "Kommunist" (Communist) will be spelled "Komunist," with only one "m."

The idea: By eliminating double and other unnecessary letters, paper will be saved. And the U.S.S.R. is short on paper.

It seems that a spelling reform in 1917-18, after the Bolsheviks took power, resulted in vast savings of paper—enough to save 70 pages of paper in one copy of the novel "War and Peace."

Jeepers. Rusia suceds in geting acros a mamoth idea. One decre and paper is saved, ink is saved, and words are shortened and made easier to get fited into headlines. Imagine: Rockefeler, Boby Kenedy, Geo. Walace, Congres, Misisipi and Tenese.

One decre, and speling is reformed. And, here in the land of the fre and the suposed home of eficiency, we have failed for years in one simple atempt: We can't get anybody interested in droping the "u" when it follows "q." And why use "qu" when "q" always means "qu" anyway? The Russians are right: Simple speling is quality speling.

LBJ Wants to Avoid FDR Pitfall

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Lyndon Johnson, who sat at the feet of a great presidential tactician — Franklin D. Roosevelt — during FDR's last eight years in the White House, has been refreshing his memory of history.

The history that interests Johnson is how Roosevelt, re-elected by a landslide vote in 1936, slipped so badly politically in 1938 that he lost 88 congressional seats to the Republicans. Johnson doesn't want that to happen to him.

Yet in one respect he finds himself in somewhat the same position as Roosevelt.

After carrying every state except Maine and Vermont in 1936, Roosevelt had the popular support, but found that the Supreme Court had the power. It could and did veto his essential legislation.

Today, with the biggest electoral margin in history, Johnson has the popular support, but the chairmen of congressional committees — like the Supreme Court in 1936—have the power over legislation.

At the last congressional session, LBJ, by dint of arm-twisting, cajoling, job-promising, and a record amount of telephoning, managed to pass most of his legislation. But at times it almost exhaused him. No other president could have done it. Certainly Kennedy had not been able to do it. And no president should be required to take so much time from the vital duties of conducting foreign and executive affairs to be combined wet-nurse, baby-sitter, and chaperone for Congress.

Antiquated Senitority

Therefore Johnson faces the question of whether to do what FDR did with the Supreme Court and force a showdown over the antiquated seniority system whereby one congressional committee chairman can keep legislation from coming up for a vote by all 435 members of the House; and sometimes — though less easily — do the same thing in the Senate.

What the President well remembers, is how his mentor, Franklin Roosevelt, took a political beating with his so-called "court-packing" bill and lost the battle. However, he did not lose the war. The Supreme Court, as a direct result of that battle, has been a "Roosevelt Court" ever since. It has been the most important body of government to follow FDR's philosophy long after his deat

Johnson, who came to Washington when the Supreme Court fight was still bitterly reverberating, remembers all this. However, he is inclined to be more cautious than FDR, especially when it comes to tangling with one of the sacred cows of Congress — Seniority. After all, Johnson benefited from seniority himself and worked with many Southern chairmen who swear by it.

Furthermore he can argue, just as Roosevelt could have argued, that under our system of checks and balances, this is something over which the executive branch of government has no jurisdiction. He has a good excuse for ducking a showdown.

Helping Future Presidents

Being a realist, however, he also knows that a few talks with the right congressional leaders could start the Democratic caucuses on the road to changing the antiquated seniority system for years to come. He could do this not only for himself, but for other presidents to come. All it takes is a one-vote majority in the Democratic caucus of both the House and Senate to change the system. And this should not be difficult for a man with Lyndon's influence, persuasion and vote-getting prestige.

So the question is: Does Lyndon want to make history? Or does he want to play for the short range stakes of passing his present program?

The answer is that, in general, Johnson wants to play for history. But he also wants to avoid the sudden dip in popularity and the loss of 88 House seats which FDR suffered in 1938.

This brings up another chapter in FDR's record which Johnson knows about, but which other politicians have forgotten.

The chief reason for Roosevelt's political slump so soon after his 1936 landslide was not the court-packing bill, but a depression. and FDR was largely responsible for applying the economic brakes which caused the depression.

The depression was not due to Roosevelt's "arrogance," as charged in the Supreme Court battle, but due to his caution. He had scored the 1936 landslide in part because a soldiers' bonus of $1.7 billion had pumped new purchasing power into the economy. With this spur, industrial buyers had started laying up stockpiles and business was heading for inflation. But Roosevelt pulled the plug on this inflation. Consumer purchasing was contracted by around $4 billion, and with 10 or 11 million people unemployed in the summer of 1937, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, on Nov. 10, publicly called for a balanced budget.

This tightened the economy further, and led to the depression of 1938 which was what really caused the Roosevelt set-back in the elections of that year.

Johnson, who lived through this period, has already called for the reduction of some excise taxes, which he knows will spur the economy during the first two years of his new administration.

So there is no real reason why he can't proceed with the most important reform needed in Congress — breaking the strangle hold which elderly chairmen have over key committees.

Capital Punishment 'Good As Dead'

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Babylonians drowned murderers; the Israelites stoned Sabbath breakers; the Assyrians impaled the guilty; the Romans had an extra-special way of dealing with citizens who murdered close relatives.

They sewed the victim up in a sack with a dog, a cock, a viper and an ape. Then the sack was cast into the sea or river.

Last year in the United States, 21 men were put to death by legal authorities in entirely legal ways. Six were gassed, 13 were electrocuted and two were hanged. The youngest was an 18-year-old Negro in Georgia; the oldest a 55-year-old white man in Arizona.

The crimes they committed are recognized universally as heinous: murder, rape and kidnaping. But, in this century — and there are notable exceptions — that's the way more and more Americans, like people all over the world, are viewing the death penalty.

Last March, the Kentucky House voted to abolish capital punishment. Although the bill died in the Senate, that's the first time the perennial measure had traveled that far.

Early this month, voters in Oregon approved a law to take the death penalty for murder out of the state constitution. When Gov. Mark Hatfield proclaims the vote — he immediately commuted to life the death sentences of three condemned slayers — the death penalty will be dead in Oregon.

The 21 executed by civil authorities in the United States last year were, according to Federal Bureau of Prison records, the smallest number executed in any year in the nation's history. From 1930, the earliest for which detailed statistics are available, until 1949, at least 100 were so dispatched each year.

Equally to the point is that capital punishment is as good as dead in many states where it remains on the books. Only 12 states recorded executions in 1963. Seven states haven't conducted an execution in a decade.

A year ago, Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California, an implacable foe of capital punishment, pointed to 10½ months without a legal execution in his state and declared: "It really means that capital punishment has been repealed by the courts."

At the moment, 42 states, the District of Columbia and the federal government impose capital punishment. It is illegal in six states — Michigan, Wisconsin, Maine, Minnesota, Alaska and Hawaii — and, for all practical purposes, in Rhode Island and North Dakota.

On the world scene, since 1859 capital punishment has been abolished (except, as a general rule, in wartime or under martial law) in Austria, Colombia, Latvia, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Panama, Portugal, Romania, San Marino, the Dominican Republic, Sweden, Argentina, Brazil, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Honduras, Norway, Peru, Uruguay and Venezuela.

Perhaps the most prominent voice raised against abolition of the death penalty is that of J. Edgar Hoover, since 1924 director of the FBI

In June 1960, writing in the FBI law enforcement bulletin, the nation's most famous crime fighter said: "It is my opinion that when no shadow of a doubt remains relative to the guilt of a defendant, the public interest demands capital punishment be invoked where the law so provides."

And, he went on, "the professional law enforcement officer is convinced from experience that the hardened criminal has been and is deterred from killing based on the prospect of the death penalty."

Still, the pendulum is swinging the other way.

Jelly Beans Disturb Mom

by Susan Light,
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LIGHT: My son's first grade teacher has a peculiar way of "motivating" the children to good work. Every time they have a perfect arithmetic or phonics paper, or read especially well, she hands out a jelly bean. Before jelly beans, it was candy hearts with such inscriptions as "Lover Boy" and "Dream Girl." Before candy hearts, it was animal crackers.

To me, this method of reward seems downright silly and unprofessional. My son will work his head off to win a jelly bean. Shouldn't he work instead for the self-satisfaction and pride of a job well done? I've tried to teach him to do his best for the intrinsic value that lies in meeting high standards of excellence. What is your opinion of this practice?

—DISAPPROVING MOTHER

ANSWER: If it works, I think it's fine! I know that many educators frown on the use of artifical rewards and punishments. Some educational psychology books point out the dangers of such practice giving children a false sense of values.

However, one of the basic tenets of teaching is moving from the concrete to the abstract. Children in the primary grades, particularly, need many concrete examples and motivators to acquire needed skills. They rarely understand abstract principles; this comes later as they mature.

To your son, a jelly bean may represent concretely the principles you are trying to teach him. If it acts as an incentive to make him work harder, be glad his teacher keeps a supply on hand!

There's a lot of showmanship in teaching. Good teachers often make use of "corn" to put a point across.

DID YOU KNOW that statistics compiled by Kent State University in Ohio show that only 5 per cent of the students who enter there with less than a C high school average will ever graduate? Parents should think twice before enrolling their children in college with the false hope that some magical process will change them from D students to Phi Beta Kappas.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

Governor-Elect Hearnes Already A Busy Man

The lines in the face of Governor-elect Warren E. Hearnes currently are approaching the point of tiredness often seen during the hectic battles Hearnes waged in both the primary and general elections to achieve what has been a lifelong ambition.

But, as Hearnes noted in a brief interview sandwiched in between hordes of office callers, there's a real difference. This time he doesn't have the worry of the outcome hanging over his head.

Although a brief respite in Florida was designed to restore some of the fire to Missouri's 41-year-old in-coming chief executive any benefit derived from the vacation appears to have been short lived.

Literally hundreds of persons are vying for the time and attention of the new governor. And, ironically, many of these were acutely opposed to his nomination but for thick-skinned politicians it's pretty easy to let by-gones be by-gones.

Hearnes not only is grossly involved with the vast patronage arrangements he must give first consideration to, but many legislative leaders are actively pursuing pet legislation with the hope it will get the backing of the incoming Hearnes Administration in January.

Not only must Hearnes continue his close scrutiny of financial matters, but he will be faced with a host of problems he has previously pointed out as needing attention.

Foremost on his mind at this time appears to be the problem of reapportionment which he feels is the primary headache confronting rural Missourians.

Too, there are the continuing problems in the field of education. With regard to the state's teachers, Hearnes stated emphatically that he feels more money will be available for the foundation program.

"With natural growth, there just has to be more money available for the foundation program," Hearnes commented.

Further along the lines of education, the newly elected governor has indicated he will give favorable attention to the proposal for a statewide educational television system.

The latter will cost a great deal of money and this was a rub in the 1963 session of the General Assembly.

There has been quite a fuss over alleged inequities in the present bracketing system in the state sales tax. Litigation currently rests in the courts, but Hearnes is keeping abreast of developments:

"I think it is wrong to require merchants to pay taxes on sales under 25 cents. We will have to seek a change of some sort. The bracket probably will have to be lowered because it is unfair as it now stands."

Other areas in which the governor is giving thought and consideration include the continuing carnage on state highways. Here, Hearnes feels a new law curbing drunken driving is urgently needed; and local water resources is another area of concern, along with furthering the economic development of Missouri as a whole.

Although most of the programs being proposed involve a great deal of money, Hearnes remains adamant in saying that he will not seek a tax hike.

Insurance Business Is Real Big Affair

The latest report of the Division of Insurance indicates that things are looking up for insurance companies now doing business in the state of Missouri.

Total premiums paid by Missourians during 1963 (the latest period for which such statistics are available) amounted to $843,995,868, the division reports.

This compares to $781,488,105 worth of business in 1962 and $771,818,416 the previous year.

The division's report also noted that there are 144 Missouri insurance companies and 739 companies of other states and foreign countries falling under its direct supervision.

During 1963 the division collected a total of $15,991,502 in premium taxes and fees. This money goes into the state's General Revenue account.

Paint Hot Water Tap

by Polly Cramer,
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — My children used to get confused about which was the cold water faucet. I painted with red paint every hot water faucet in the house, and even used red fingernail polish on some. This has saved the children many burns, especially under the shower. Also it saves water for they adjust the faucet faster knowing the red faucet is HOT water.—MRS. J. B.

DEAR POLLY — To make your ironing board easier to move about, set each leg in a glass coaster.

— If a child fusses for a new coloring book trace around your cookie cutters to make designs on blank paper. If made of cardboard, these shapes may be reuseable stencils to be traced, colored, and then cut out.

— My children love to play store and I give then the unused coupons from grocery advertisements to use for paper money.—MARIE

DEAR POLLY — The best help I have found for moving furniture without scratcing hardwood floors are pieces cut from an old rug pad. I cut them to the proper sizes and glued them on the bottoms of different pieces of furniture. It works wonderfully. I also put some strips on the bottom of the garage door and the bottom of the storage closet door. This is a great help in keeping out dust.

— When my husband discarded a worn wallet for a new one, one I thought our toddler might enjoy playing with the old one which was still in fairly good condition. I cut pictures of things he recognized from old greeting cards and put these in the compartments and pockets. He was delighted to look through his pocket gallery and while being entertained he has improved his facility with snaps and zippers as he plays with the wallet.—MRS. J.L.P.

Have you priced a tiger lately?

Take the GTO, for Instance. The greatest tiger of them all. Even real tigers cower when this baby speaks. It loads 335 horses under that hood. Plus bucket seats. Carpeting. Real walnut dash. And like that. Yet it sells for less than a lot of pussycats with imitation stripes. And of course the GTO's optional 360-hp engine puts it so far out in front of the pack that it gets kind of lonesome. Then there's the LeMans. Same kind of pizzazz. Same kind of crackle. Only with slightly smaller teeth. But don't worry. It can still handle the pussycats. If you haven't priced a tiger lately, you'd better. Now.

Irish Top Slate In College Grid

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Frank Broyles and his Arkansas Razorbacks have all the victories they need, thankee very much m'am, and they'd just like a couple of losses now.

They've won all they're really allowed to, least-wise in the regular season, you see. Ten of 'em. Their season is over and they're still not No. 1. So's the best thing they can hope for is a couple of losses.

That's not to wish Ara Parseghian and his Irish nor Bear Bryant and his Crimson Tide any bad luck, mind you. It's just that's the only way the Razorbacks can gain the No. 1 spot they've sought so long and never achieved.

Notre Dame's Fighting Irish retained their No. 1 spot in the latest Associated Press Poll Monday, gaining 36 of the 47 first-place ballots cast.

In all, Notre Dame collected 437 points in the voting on the basis of 10 for first, nine for second, eight for third and so on, while Alabama retained second with six first-place votes and 385 points.

Each has a 9-0 record with one game to go, Notre Dame against Southern California and Alabama against Auburn. Arkansas, No. 3, is through. The Porkers, who have a Cotton Bowl date with Nebraska, closed out their first perfect 10-0 season in 55 years with a 17-0 blanking of Texas Tech.

Ten-0 is, of course, as good as you can do—and this is a team that hoped only to do as well as it's 5-5 record of the season before—but it now would take two major upsets for Arkansas to win it all. Both Notre Dame and Alabama will be solid favorites in their final regular-season games.

Notre Dame, Alabama and Arkansas remained unchanged in the 1-2-3 rankings, but the rest of the nation's elite took a considerable shaking up.

Nebraska, upset by Oklahoma 17-7, dropped from No. 4 to seventh with Michigan moving into the fourth position. The Wolverines upset Ohio State 10-0 for the Big Ten title and a place in the Rose Bowl.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points:

1.	Notre Dame (36)	437
2.	Alabama (6)	385
3.	Arkansas (4)	345
4.	Michigan (1)	315
5.	Texas	247
6.	Louisiana State	189
7.	Nebraska	158
8.	Oregon State	91
9.	Ohio State	84
10.	Florida State	58

Saturday To Decide Big 8 Rushing Title

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fullbacks Walt Garrison of Oklahoma State and Jim Grisham of Oklahoma will decide the Big Eight rushing title Saturday, leaving Gale Sayers of Kansas, the league's career record holder, in third place.

Garrison leads Grisham, 668-641, with Sayers at 633.

Sayers, however, finished with 1,203 yards in all categories.

Oddly, the Kansas All America candidate had the best season of his career in four departments—passing, pass receiving, kickoff returns and punt returns — with 570 yards in the four combined.

But he dropped to his career low in rushing, as defenses were better than ever, thanks to the return of platoon specialization. Even at that, his average of 5.2 yards per carry leads the league although below his 7.1 in 1962 and 6.9 in 1963.

His final career rushing total is 2,675 yards on 412 trips for a 6.5 average. He scored 22 points and passed for six more.

The Jayhawk phantom fintom finished with 4,020 yards for his career in all categories, and only 103 came on his left-handed passing, which totalled 9-for-21 with one intercepted. For his career he averaged 12 yards on punt returns, 23.6 in kickoff runbacks and 11.4 on pass receptions.

As an indication of the tougher defenses this year, the league champ, whether Garrison or Grisham, likely will finish with the lowest winning total in nine years, since Tommy McDonald of OU won in 1955 with 702 yards.

Tom Vaughn of Iowa State jumped to fourth place at 497 yards with a 136-yard game against Arizona, a season high in the league. Frank Solich of Nebraska finished at 444, Gary Lane of Missouri 432 and Kansas' Ron Oelschlager at 431.

Lane may get his second straight total offense crown. He finished at 1,202 yards, Bob Churchich of Nebraska wound up at 1,045 and Glenn Baxter of OSU has 1,002 with one game left. Next are Bob Skahan of Kansas at 826 and Bernie McCall of Colorado at 794.

In passing, Churchich has a good lead with 893 to 770 for Lane and 765 for Baxter, who needs 119 against OU to take the crown. McCall has 569 passing and Skahan 550.

Freeman White of Nebraska leads Lance Rentzel of Oklahoma 348 to 274 in pass receiving yardage with Bill Symons of Colorado on top in catches with 27. Kansas State's Doug Dusenbury still leads in punting with 42.3. Larry Elliott moved past Vaughn in kickoff returns, 451-402, but Elliott still trails Larry Shield of OU, 178-145 in punt returns. Elliott is the defending champ in each category.

Nebraska's Kent McCloughan has the scoring title clinched with 74 points. Garrison and Rentzel have 36 each, Baxter, Sayers and Solich 30 each.

Will Exempt Nicklaus From All Entry Fees

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus will be exempt from paying entry fees in all 1965 golf tournaments, a sort of a bonus for the 24-year-old pro for edging Arnold Palmer in the 1964 PGA money race by a mere $81.13.

When the season ended with the Cajun Classic in Lafayette, La., Sunday, Nicklaus — who was second in the tourney—pocketed $113,284.50 in winnings for the year. Palmer was third in the Cajun and his earnings reached $113,203.37.

The PGA said Monday the race was the closest since it started keeping records in 1947.

Name Boyer Most Valued NL Player

BOSTON (AP) — Third baseman Ken Boyer, who sparked the St. Louis Cardinals to the National League pennant and a victory in the World Series, was named today the National League's Most Valuble Player for 1964.

The oldest of the famed brothers from Missouri was an easy victor. He was named first on 14 of the 20 ballots cast by the selection committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Boyer's selection gave third basemen a sweep of the MVP awards. Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles was named the American League winner last week.

Boyer drew a total of 243 points, with ballots counted on the basis of 10 points for first place, nine for second, eight for third, etc. He drew 56 points more than runner-up Johnny Callison, the outfield star of the Philadelphia Phillies, who had 187 points.

Boyer's teammate, first baseman Bill White, was third with 106½ points.

Boyer is the first member of the St. Louis Cardinals to win since Stan Musial in 1948, the last of three such honors for the Cardinal great. Boyer also is the first third baseman to be selected in the NL since Bob Elliott of Boston in 1947. In fact, Elliott was the only other third sacker picked for the award.

The 1963 MVP was Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers, whose 1964 season was cut short by injuries. A year ago, Koufax received 237 points. His total this year was 7½ for 17th place.

The 1963 runner-up, Dick Groat of St. Louis, did not receive a mention this year.

Boyer, 33, is the ninth St. Louis player to receive the MVP award since the BBWA took over the balloting in 1931. In addition to Musial (1943, 1946 and 1948), other Cardinals honored in the past were Frankie Frisch (1931), Dizzy Dean (1934), Joe Medwick (1937), Mort Cooper (1942) and Marty Marion (1944).

The spectacular fielding Boyer also had a fine year with the bat. He led the major leagues in runs batted in with 119, belted 24 home runs and was among the league leaders in triples with 10. In all, he accounted for 219 Cardinal runs, scoring 100 to go with the 119 RBI.

Recognition was a long time coming for the infielder who has been with the Cardinals since 1955.

At bat, he has been amazingly consistent. His .295 1964 batting average was just .001 below his lifetime mark of .296. For the past four years, he has hit exactly 24 home runs in each year. Since 1957, he has driven in at least 90 runs each season.

Boyer first heard the word of his selection on his return from a hunting trip to Hermon, Mo., about 100 miles from his St. Louis home. Convinced the MVP choice wouldn't be announced until later in the week, Boyer thought at first the official notification was a gag.

Will Decide Michigan's Opponents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Notre Dame, the country's top-ranked college football team, may not play in a bowl, but the Fighting Irish probably will decide Michigan's opponent in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

The unbeaten, untied Irish go after their 10th straight victory Saturday against Southern California in Los Angeles. The Trojans are tied with Oregon State for the lead in the Pacific Athletic Conference, but the PAC faculty advisors announced Monday they would defer their vote until after the Notre Dame-Southern Cal game.

The inference is that if the Trojans upset Notre Dame or make a good showing they might be selected over Oregon State for the Rose Bowl. Southern Cal and Oregon State both are 3-1 in conference play while over-all Oregon State is 8-2 and the Trojans 6-3.

The postponement of the PAC team selection was the main news Monday, bowl-wise, although West Virginia announced it had accepted an invitation to play in the Dec. 19 Liberty Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J., in the first major bowl game to be played indoors.

No opponent was named for the Mountaineers although Gomer Jones, Oklahoma coach, said the Sooners had been contacted.

Name Otto Big 8 Back Of The Week

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

Gus Otto, Missouri fullback who ripped Kansas for 88 yards in 15 carries, is the Big Eight conference Back of the Week by a close margin over two other fullbacks—Tom Vaughn of Iowa State and Jon Kennedy of Oklahoma.

Otto, a handsome, blonde 215-pound senior from St. Louis, was the Missouri team captain this season. He played defense most of the season because he's one of the league's best, and usually played offense only in key, short-yardage situations because he's Missouri's best power runner.

He had the best day of his career against Kansas, as the Tigers spoiled Kansas' bid for a co-championship. Eight times he either picked up yardage needed for a first down, or made the 10 yards himself in one shot.

The voting for the Big Eight Lineman of the Week honor ended in a tie between Oklahoma linebacker Carl McAdams and Kansas State split end Larry Condit. McAdams helped stop Nebraska with 86 yards rushing. Condit twice pulled his team from behind with touchdowns.

Vaughn played defense only on punting situations against Arizona for the first time this season. In all other games, he was a two-way workhorse. With the added rest he ripped Arizona for 136 yards, highest this season by a Big Eight back.

Kennedy took over for ailing Jim Grisham at fullback for OU and got 88 yards in 19 trips. Coach Gomer Jones said "Kennedy did a remarkable job."

Other backfield nominees were Bill Symons of Colorado, who threw the key block in one T.D. run and scored once on a 91-yard kickoff return; Jerry Condit of K-State, twin brother of Larry, with 65 yards in 19 trips; Mike Johnson of Kansas; Bob Churchich of Nebraska, with 12 of 24 passes for 150 yards and the only T.D.; and Walt Garrison of Oklahoma State, the top rusher with 85 yards in 25 carries.

Mets Sign Spahn For Next Year

NEW YORK (AP) — "I want to win 400 games," Warren Spahn, the newest New York Met and baseball's oldest active player, said today.

The Mets purchased the 43-year-old pitcher from Milwaukee Monday in a move to strengthen their pitching and coaching staffs and push their attendance closer to the two-million mark.

Spahn, who holds the major league record of 356 victories by a southpaw, will also serve as a pitching coach. In that capacity he succeeds Mel Harder, who caught on with the Chicago Cubs earlier this month.

"The greatest job in baseball is being a starting pitcher and that's what I expect to be next year," Spahn said. He had a 6-13 record with only four complete games in 27 starts last season.

"I wasn't pitching enough last year," he added. "I have to work regularly to be effective. I told Johnny McHale and Bobby Bragan that I wanted to go somewhere else if I didn't fit into their plans."

McHale is Milwaukee's president. Bragan is the Braves' manager.

"I am sound physically," Spahn said, "and I'd like nothing better than to make the comeback of the year as a pitcher next season. You don't go from middle age to old age in one year. My aim is still to win 400 games."

The purchase price and Spahn's salary with the Mets were not disclosed. It was believed, however, that he cost the Mets no more than $25,000. His estimated salary with the Braves last season was around $85,000.

"The most important thing he wanted," said George Weiss, the Mets' general manager, "was to take his regular turn as a pitcher."

First Team Takes Cross Country Run

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Western Michigan won its first team title at the 26th annual NCAA cross country run Monday while Elmore Banton of Ohio University led all the way to make it a good day for the Mid-American Conference.

The Broncos from Kalamazoo, Mich., never before had taken a national title. They finished first with a low of 86 points. Oregon was second with 116 points and Ohio University, of Athens, Ohio, third with 122.

Banton, a 142-pound junior from Akron, sprinted out at the start and never was caught. He finished nearly 75 yards ahead of Bill Clark of Notre Dame. Jim Murphy of Air Force was third, Dave Wighton of Colorado fourth and Walt Hewlett of Harvard fifth.

Banton covered the four miles in 20:04.5, a creditable performance considering the 36-degree temperature, a 17 mile per hour wind and slippery snow and slush.

The best NCAA championship time over a four-mile course was 19:12.3 by Max Truex of Southern California in 1957.

All of the 180 starters crossed the finish line.

Other team placings, in order:

Notre Dame, Brigham Young, Georgetown, Miami of Ohio, Houston, Kansas, Air Force, Tennessee, Villanova, Providence, Harvard, Minnesota, Michigan State, Pittsburgh, Bowling Green, Oklahoma City, William & Mary, Drake, Wayne, Southern Illinois.

Queen Empress Top Juvenile Filly of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps completed a sweep of the Thoroughbred Racing Association's 2-year-old crowns today when her Wheatley Stable's Queen Empress was named the top juvenile filly of the year.

Earlier, the TRA board of selection comprised of 31 racing secretaries, had named Bold Ladthe champion colt. The two Wheatley Stable runners, along with five-time Horse of the Year Kelso and Bon Nouvel, voted best of the steepelchasers, will be honored at the TRA's annual dinner here Dec. 3.

Queen Empress, daughter of Bold Ruler who also sired Bold Lad the champion colt. The two ey in 14 starts and earned $319,262. She won eight races, was second four times and third twice.

Nicest Thing Happens To Blind Golfer

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — "This is one of the nicest things that ever happened to me," was blind golfer Charley Boswell's reaction to being named to Sports Illustrated Silver Anniversary All-America.

"I'm thrilled to death," the Birmingham insurance executive said.

The Silver Anniversary squad is comprised of former college football players who have made outstanding contributions in life during the 25 years after graduation.

Boswell played on the 1937, 1938 and 1939 University of Alabama football teams. He was blinded by a German shell in saving a fellow soldier in the Battle of the Bulge.

After losing his sight Boswell concentrated on golf. He became an 80 shooter, winning the International Blind Golfers Championship seven times and the national title 13 times.

Beer License Suspended At Fairgrounds

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Hollis Ketchum, state liquor control supervisor, reported today he has revoked two licenses, declared four null and void for failure to pay sales taxes and suspended 16 others for various law violations.

He revoked the package license held by Earnest F. and Viola K. Counts near Bunker in Reynolds County because they had been convicted in magistrate court of selling liquor to a minor.

He revoked the package license of Wick's near Clarksville because the licensee, Wichmann S. Taylor, was convicted of selling liquor at his house, not his licensed premises.

Suspensions included:

The 3.2 beer license of Van's station near Joplin, 30 days beginning Nov. 23, for sale to minors.

The 3.2 beer license of Fair Concessions, Inc. at the State Fairgrounds, Sedalia, 30 days beginning Nov. 30 for sale to minors.

The package license of Hill Top Liquors near Fayette, 20 days beginning Nov. 23, for sale to minor.

The 3.2 beer license of bean lake service near Rushville, 15 days beginning Nov. 30 for sale after hours.

Repeaters On Coaches List For All-Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Butkus of Illinois, Gale Sayers of Kansas and Rick Redman of Washington are repeaters on the American Football Coaches Association All-Star team.

Butkus, the Illini's center and linebacker, Jayhawk halfback Sayers and Redman, a standout guard for the Huskies, were first-team selections last year.

This year's first team, selected by 512 coaches and released Monday by TV Guide magazine, includes two quarterbacks, Bob Berry of Oregon and Craig Morton of California.

Oregon's Len Casanova, president of the association, said the coaches decided Berry and Morton should share the position because the voting was so close.
